IAB BOARD OF DIRECTORS MET IN EL SALVADOR

Within an excellent program of events and activities, organized by the Salvadorian Association of Broadcasters - ASDER, the Mid-year Meeting of the Board of Directors of the International Association of Broadcasting – IAB - was held in San Salvador on Thursday, May 16.

Also, there was an important forum of the Union of Broadcasting Associations of Central America - UNARCA.

Both organizations held joint meetings dealing on various topics related to broadcasting at regional and hemispheric level.

IAB Board of Directors concluded their meeting with the "Declaration of San Salvador" and adopted various resolutions on situations that affect Freedom of Expression in Honduras and Argentina as well.

The program of activities ended with an important ceremony in which ASDER conferred its highest award, the "Golden Microphone", to IAB Director General, Dr. Hector Oscar Amengual, in recognition of his 25 years of service in IAB and his commitment to Freedom of Expression and Private and Free Broadcasting.
