

GUILLERMO ANTONIO ADAMES WILL RECEIVE IMPORTANT INTERNATIONAL DISTINCTION

We are pleased to inform that at the XXXI Hemispheric Congress of Latin Chambers of Commerce and Industry will grant the Panamanian prestigious broadcaster and journalist Don Guillermo Antonio Adames the international award: "MOST OUTSTANDING COMMUNICATOR OF THE YEAR 2014 – 2015".

Executives of the Chambers of Commerce of 24 countries unanimously agreed to carry out this important recognition, which will become effective in a ceremony to be held at the Biltmore Hotel, Coral Gables, Florida, USA, June 3, 2015.

Don Guillermo Antonio Adames started as a social communicator very young, he is a prestigious journalist and broadcaster. He was founder and is President of Omega Stereo FM, as is also a renowned director and host of important news programs in his country, where he also chaired the National Council of Journalism.

The award winning is a senior leader of the Panamanian Association of Broadcasting - APR-, Institutional Member of IAB, and served as Secretary General of our 44th General Assembly held last October in Panama City.

IAB congratulates the valued colleague for this well deserved distinction given his successful career which is source of pride for the Panamanian broadcasting and for the three Americas.

Guillermo Antonio Adames with Pedro N. Solís, President of APR